Upcoming Workshops and Series

Complimentary Tao Hands Intro Evening Wednesday, September 6th, 7pm-8pm

In this introductory event, you will learn more about the life transforming power of Tao Hands and you will be able to experience a Tao Hands blessing yourself!

What is Tao Hands?

Tao Hands is a spiritual transmission that carries the frequency, vibration, and information, energy, and matter of Tao (Source). Tao Hands radiates out the Tao qualities of unconditional love, forgiveness, compassion, and more.

Everything has a vibrational field that contains information, energy, and matter. According to Dr. and Master Sha, creator of Tao Hands and co-founder of Tao Science with quantum physicist, Dr. Rulin Xiu, what science calls information (or message) is the same as soul or spirit. It is this very aspect of our being that leads our lives. The positive information we carry in our soul is aligned with our true essence, like the Tao qualities of love, forgiveness, and compassion. The negative information we carry in our soul is associated with our challenges, such as unbalanced emotions, negative thinking, health challenges and more.

Tao Hands carry the high frequency and positive information of Tao and the Tao qualities of unconditional love, light, forgiveness, and compassion. Tao Hands has the power to transform the negative information at the root of our many challenges. This could happen instantly or little by little. In this way, Tao Hands can help restore balance and harmony and support progress toward better health and happiness.

With Tao Hands, you are empowered to serve yourself, your loved ones, and your community, including pets, plants, homes, businesses and more!
